Resolutions at a Meeting of Citizens Yesterday.

Patriotic Principles Sacrificed to Petty Political Preferences.

Feland Was Fired Says Adjutant General Collier--Governor
Bradley, Too, Has Something to Say.

In the city court room yesterday afternoon a large number of citizens gathered and organized into a mass meeting for the purpose of expressing some sentiments regarding the trouble in company D.

There was great indignation in the city when it was learned that Gov. Bradley had appointed his understrapper Noel Gaines to command the company over the protests of the men, who had chosen Capt. Gordon Nelson to the position after Capt. Feland had been ordered home or had resigned as the case may be.

The friends of the boys who have offered their services to their country felt that some expression from home in the form of resolutions of sympathy and commendation were due. That they should have resented the unwarranted interference of the Executive was but natural and the manly stand they took in refusing to be mustered in under a man of Gaines' character, from a different section of the State, who had nothing in common with them, met with the hearty approval of their fathers and friends at home.

The meeting was exceedingly conservative and nothing was said during the proceedings regarding Capt. Feland and the numerous reports that have been discussed upon the streets, reflecting upon his conduct while at Camp Collier.

Judge Brown called the meeting to order, and moved the election of Judge Hanbery as temporary Chairman. Upon taking the chair Judge Hanbery said that the object of the meeting was to bring influence to bear upon the Governor, in order to induce him to allow Company D to choose its own officers. He thought that the meeting should be presided over by a gentleman who was close to the Governor and whose name would have weight with the Executive. To this end he moved the election of Dr. Andrew Sargent as permanent Chairman. The nomination of Dr. Sargent was received with applause, and he was chosen unanimously.

Dr. Sargent said that he was heartily in sympathy with the objects of the meeting and would co-operate with any movement that would assist in carrying out the wishes of our gallant boys at Frankfort.

Frank Bell was chosen Secretary of the meeting.

Mr. J. H. Eggleston moved the appointment of a special committee to draft resolutions expressing the sentiments of the meeting. The motion carried, and the chair appointed the following gentlemen: J. T. Hanbery, Chairman; J. H. Eggleston, A. P. Crockett, R. R. Donaldson, C. G. McDaniel.

The Secretary and Dr. C. H. Tandy were asked to state for the better enlightenment of the meeting, the status of affairs with the company.

The Chairman said he thought the men who had volunteered their services at their country's call should have the right to choose their own Captain, a man of whom they knew something. He then gave some very interesting information touching the military record of the man Gaines, which showed him unfit to command a company of gentlemen or even to be their associates.

The Committee on resolutions reported the following, which were read by Judge Hanbery, received with applause and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In times like these when every city and community is sending forth their young men to answer their country's call in a struggle which should enlist the co-operation of all patriotic Americans, we the citizens of Hopkinsville in mass convention assembled, deplore the unfortunate disruption of the Latham Light Guards, Company D, composed of the best young men of our city, now in Camp Collier, Lexington. It is, therefore,

Resolved, By this convention, that our sympathies are tendered to these gallant boys who are in earnest in their determination to fight for their country.

Resolved, Further, that his excellency Gov. Bradley be requested to withdraw his appointment of Capt. Noel Gaines as Captain of Company D and allow the members of said Company to select their own Captain and commissioned officers without executive interference. Be it also

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention and of the people and homes that Company D represents, that in the event this right-honored custom, as expressed this day in resolutions forwarded to Gov. Bradley, to choose the commissioned officers under whom they are to serve, is denied and refused by Gov. Bradley, that we will welcome their return home, honored, respected and loved as when they departed from us.

ANDREW SARGENT, Chairman.
FRANK BELL, Secretary.

J. T. HANBERY, Chairman.
J. H. EGGLESTON, A. P. CROCKETT, R. R. DONALDSON, C. G. MCDANIEL, Committee on Resolutions.

On motion of Mr. George Campbell, a collection was taken to forward the resolutions to Governor Bradley and to Company D, by wire. The meeting then adjourned.

GOV. BRADLEY REPLIES.

Says He Hasn't Commissioned Any Officer for "Company D."

In response to the resolutions the following telegram was received from Gov. Bradley last night:

Frankfort, Ky., May 20.
Dr. Andrew Sargent,
Chairman:

Information is that a large majority of the company do not desire to go to war. There are now only thirty in camp. Haven't commissioned any one to command that company, as there is no one there to command. Gen. Collier authorized Gaines to recruit to fill up the company and agreed that those remaining should be recommissioned officially. Gen. Collier says that he should order him to proceed with such members of Co. D, as did not desire to enlist, to Hopkinsville and reorganize a company for State Guard Service, and this being true, you should address your complaint to Capt. Feland and those who desire to go home rather than to me.

W. O. BRADLEY.

REPORTS CONFLICTING.

Papers See Things Through Different Colored Glasses.

Regarding the status of affairs in the Hopkinsville Company the most conflicting reports have been sent from Camp Collier. No two papers have agreed in their reports of the unfortunate affair. Some of these reports do the members of the Company a great injustice. For instance, the correspondent of the Louisville Dispatch, in speaking of the matter says:

"When the company arrived it had ninety members, but thirty of them refused to go before the examining board at all. They just came down to have a good time, and after their frolic decided to go back. In this Capt. Feland encouraged them by his conduct."

Whatever may have been Capt. Feland's own views and conduct it is not true that any considerable number of the Hopkinsville boys went to Lexington with the intention of "having a good time." The great majority of them had no other thought than to give their services to their country and face whatever dangers the exigencies of war might bring forth.

There is much dissatisfaction in the third regiment over the action of Governor Bradley in appointing undesirable men as officers. The Hopkinsville company has disbanded, and many of the boys have gone home because the Governor refused to recognize Gordon Nelson as the successor of Capt. John Feland, resigned, appointing Noel Gaines of Frankfort, in his stead. The Hopkinsville boys refused to follow Gaines on account of the record he acquired at Frankfort during the senatorial election.

In all probability the report published in the Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday comes nearer sizing up the situation correctly as regards the motives of the Hopkinsville boys in refusing to be mustered in under Gaines. As will be seen from the Enquirer report, company D is not the only organization in the Third Regiment whose members are boiling with indignation over the dirty political phases that have been inducted into the situation and which threatens the disruption of the regiment.

Camp Collier, Lexington, Ky., May 19.—The Third Regiment Kentucky Volunteers is on the verge of revolution to-night. Politics is the cause of the demoralization. The Hopkinsville company has disbanded, the Hartford company threatens the same, and the Henderson company will do likewise unless they are allowed to elect a successor to Lieutenant South, thrown out because of hernia.

The trouble in the Hopkinsville company dates from the resignation on Tuesday of Captain John Feland, whose personal affairs forced him to such an action. At the time E. B. Bassett was First Lieutenant, and R. C. Payne was Second Lieutenant. The company held an election Tuesday evening, and Gordon Nelson was elected as Captain with R. C. Payne First Lieutenant, and Charles Prowse as Second Lieutenant. These names were sent in to Governor Bradley for approval and commission. This the Governor refused, and appointed Noel Gaines, of Frankfort, to be Captain and Dr. H. L. Casey, of Lexington, to be First Lieutenant, placing Payne as Second Lieutenant.

When they learned this to-day the members of the company almost to a man declared that they would not follow Gaines. The reasons stated are that he was once tried by Court-Martial for using the money paid to the Frankfort company for services at the Jackson and Walling hanging; that he was indicted in the Godfrey Hunter bribery affair at Frankfort during the last senatorial contest, and that he lost his Captaincy of the Frankfort Company. They have no objections to Dr. Casey other than that they would prefer to follow men from their own town.

After making these declarations about two-thirds of the company left camp, and notwithstanding the facts that they had passed splendid physical examinations, boarded the train and went home.

Mr. Bassett is in Hopkinsville to-night with about 30 recruits, for which he was arranging transportation, when he was wired of the disbandment. Whether he will bring them on is not known here.

Another wrangle in the Third Regiment has arisen over the displacement of James R. Rash, of Henderson, as Battalion Adjutant and the appointment in his stead of A. G. Sharpley, a guard at the Frankfort Penitentiary, who a few months ago attained considerable notoriety on account of an affair with one of the female inmates, and for which he lost his place in the Second Regiment under Colonel Gaither.

The officers of the Third favor Rash, and a petition to the Governor in his behalf is being circulated in the regiment.

There has been also much desertion in the Third because of the appointment of Eastern Kentucky men as officers in many of the companies.

Aside from the Madisonville company there is scarcely one that has its minimum quota of 75, and men are being recruited to keep up the company to muster.

AS TO CAPT. FELAND.

Gen. Collier Publishes a Statement About Him.

The following official statement from Adj. Gen. Collier regarding the late Captain of the Latham Light Guards was published in the afternoon papers of Louisville yesterday:

"The company had become disorganized and substantially disbanded, owing to its Captain's having been intoxicated and incapacitated for duty. Finally, at the request of Capt. Feland and upon the urgent request of his father and brother to let him down as easy as possible, I went to Frankfort and got Gov. Bradley's permission to issue the following order:

"Capt. John Feland, Kentucky State Guard, will proceed without delay to Hopkinsville, Ky., with such members of his company as do not desire to enlist in the United States Volunteer service, and there organize his company with a view of its being mustered into the State Guard service; by command of Gov. Bradley. D. R. Collier, Adj. Gen."

"The copy which I hold in my hand was made by Capt. Feland himself from my original draft, and

OTIS SAILS FOR MANILA TO-DAY.

Will Take 14,000 Troops and Six Months' Rations.

Captured Spanish Ships Are Legitimate Prizes of War.

Cervera's Fleet Is at Santiago--Organization of First Army Corps at Chickamauga.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—(Special)—The only new news to-day is in late bulletins of the Navy Department, that news regarded as reliable has been received that Cervera's Spanish Squadron is at Santiago de Cuba.

Capt. Barker goes to Hampton Roads to-morrow to command the protected Cruiser Newark, which will go to join Sampson.

No evidence is given the story that Polo has arranged a coaling station on the French island, St. Pierre Miquelin.

Manila Expedition Sails Sunday.

San Francisco, May 20.—(Special).—Gen. Ewell S. Otis will command the first United States expedition to Manila. It is thought that he will sail on Sunday. Everything is in readiness for the departure of the expedition.

The Steamer, City of Pekin, will transport the troops, consisting of fourteen thousand men with rations to last six months.

Ammunition, arms and machinery for the repair of Dewey's fleet will also be taken on the Pekin.

Army Corps Organized.

Chickamauga, May 20.—(Special).—General Brooks has completed the formation of the First Divisional Army Corps of the United States volunteers consisting of three brigades commanded as follows: 1st, Maj. Gen. Wilson, 2nd, Col. A. K. Arnold, 3rd, Gen. J. S. C. Baker.

The story sent out from here of the arrest of three men said to have arsenic on their persons with which to poison the water is a fake.

Cervera's Smartness Approved.

Madrid, via London, May 20.—(Special).—Another "great Spanish victory" is being celebrated. It is the arrival of Admiral Cervera's fleet at Santiago de Cuba. Enormous enthusiasm is being manifested over Cervera's success in evading Sampson.

The Queen Regent has publicly congratulated the Minister of Marine on "this glorious victory over the combined Yankee fleets." The Queen also called Admiral Cervera her compliments. He will be given another decoration, and his men rewarded for "their fine strategy."

The President Has Been Gingered.

Washington, May 20.—(Special).—The President now wants quick action. He listens with impatience to all appeals for "a little more delay," and declared to-day that the army must begin movement on Cuba immediately. He believes this the only means of provoking a fight with the Spanish, which will end the war any time soon.

The President is said to-day to be an advocate of prompt action all along the line. From a public man who called on the Executive this morning it was learned that the President refused to give out any facts about either Schley or Sampson, if he had anything new.

Washington, May 20.—(Special).—By direction of the President the following assignments of Brigadier Generals of Volunteers to duty with the several army corps, departments, divisions, etc., were made to-day: Guenther to Falls Church, Va.; Pennington, to Hempstead, N. Y.; Arnold, Kent, Henry, Hawkins, Sumner, Hurt, Lawton, and Chaffee, to Tampa; Poland, Snyder, Williston, Crompton, and Carpenter, to Chickamauga; Davis and Bates, to Mobile, Ludlow, to Headquarters; and Anderson to the Pacific.

Those Captured Schooners.

Key West, May 20.—(Special).—Over 40 cases of ammunition were found to-day on the Steamer Argonauta, captured the first of the war. On this ship was Lieut. Col. Codio, Weyler's brother-in-law.

The prize board has declared the Steamer Ambrosio Bolivar and the Schooners Candida, Mathilde and Sofia legitimate prizes of war.

If it can't be done any other way, send for Dewey.

Now that Cervera has had the nerve to run the so-called blockade, let a bottle him up.

By whose orders was it that Sampson and Schley both turned up at Key West, just when they were needed at Santiago?

Sampson, Schley and Shafter ought to be able to give the Spanish a treatment with S. S. S. strong enough to tone up their constitutions.

Polo is to leave Canada to-day and sail for Madrid. He leaves behind him an organization of spies, to obtain information and forward it by way of London.

The report of the bombardment of the fortifications of Santiago is confirmed. It is believed the damage was slight. It is now claimed that 300 Spaniards were killed in the fight at Cienfuegos, in which two Americans lost their lives while cutting the cables.

Yesterday was a rather dull day for news and the KENTUCKIAN had only three distinct scoops of first importance—the arrival of Cervera in a Cuban port, the collapse of Co. D, and the oration of Dr. DeWitt.

More than one local guardsman was seriously embarrassed by the affair of last week. There was one young man who hastened his marriage to an especially charming girl because of marching orders. The wedding took place just this evening before he marched away. He had given up his position to go to the front and the bride was to remain with her parents till the end of the war. Of course he came back that same day to find himself with a wife support, and no money to do it with, for somebody else had stepped into his position. He is still hoping to go to war, but his patriotic ardor is somewhat dampened.—Washington Post.

Miss Mac Melbourne of Santa Cruz, Cal., is the richest woman in Klondike. She owns downtown corner lots in Dawson City and other property worth $100,000, and has claims staked out which may bring her a million. Miss Melbourne is the daughter of a '49er. She was living in elegance and had money, but she wanted more. She joined a party of 12, including two other women. They sailed from San Francisco in August. At Sheep Camp Miss Melbourne's outfit was destroyed by a flood. She purchased new outfits for herself and two men, who had also lost theirs. These men ventured into a grub stake agreement with her. She still had $5000 on reaching Dawson. She invested it in claims and business real estate. She has all kinds of money. One of her claims is worth $20,000 and all her other properties are taking on loads of unearned increment, through the rapid development of Dawson City. The men she grub staked have also located valuable claims. She will get half of their pile.

Elwood Haynes, of Kokomo, Ind., can get along quite nicely without railroad trains and such things. He has a railroad of his own. When he takes a notion to go somewhere he fires up his engine, loads in his family and just goes. Mr. Haynes has invented a horseless carriage or motorcycle. It is the get there kind. Last week Mr. Haynes, his wife and four children got into the carriage and went to Portland, Ind. The distance is 70 miles. It cost just $1.12 for fuel for the round trip of 140 miles, which was made without an accident.

A week was spent visiting relatives at Portland and in the vicinity. The same trip by rail would have called for an investment of $22.28 in railroad fares. The carriage carries a six-horse power engine and is not as large as an ordinary surveyor. It has pneumatic tires. The roads of Indiana are a little more degenerate than those of Missouri. The trip is probably the longest ever made in this country with a motorcycle.

The school children of Fairmount, Ind., went on a strike and refused to learn any more because the red and yellow of Spain were floating over the school house. The colors were not intended to show forth pro-Spanish sympathies. It just happened that the colors of the graduating class were the hated red and yellow. Old glory had been unfurled. Without a thought of the incongruity the graduating class hauled it down, put up red and yellow streamers above it and sent it up again. When the younger scholars saw it they were wild. They demanded that the Spanish colors be taken down. The seniors refused. So did the school officers. The juniors struck. They marched the streets cheering and waving the United States flags. The teachers tried to drive them back to school. They scattered, all to form in line again as soon as the teachers withdrew. It was a question of taking down the colors or going prematurely into vacation. The School Board met and ordered the Spanish colors struck. The strikers cheered and returned to work.

What is to prevent Cervera from sending cruisers out of Santiago harbor to destroy the mosquito fleet vessels of the United States that have been hovering about the Southern parts of Cuba?

Admiral Sampson surely did not think the Spanish squadron would try to reach Cuba by way of Key West. Who made the blunder any how?

Won't Hurt the Canaries.

London, May 20.—The agent in the Canary Islands of a Liverpool firm writes that the British Consul there has been informed that the Canary Islands, as the result of an arrangement between Great Britain and the United States, whereby while Great Britain remains neutral, the United States will abstain from such a bombardment, which would mean great destruction of British property.

THE PHILIPPINES.

What Will Likely Be Done With Our New Islands.

Washington, D. C. May 20.—The president realizes that he will be compelled to face a serious diplomatic question very soon when the terms of peace with Spain come up for discussion, and while he has decided upon no policy, he is asking questions and gaining information and advice that will be useful to him in solving the problem. He proposes to settle with Spain on a basis that will be just, impartial and equitable to all the European powers and offer them no grounds for complaint or interference. He does not favor a colonial system for the Philippines. He realizes that the people are not fit for self-government and the United States has undertaken a tremendous responsibility in preserving order with a semi-savage population of several millions and the commercial and financial interests in the hands of English, German and other Europeans. He expects that both the British and the German governments will land troops at Manila and other places to protect their consuls and the property of their subjects, and no objection will be made on the part of the United States.

Regarding the future disposition of the Philippines, one thing is certain, which is that under no circumstances will they be restored to Spain, nor is such a thing expected or favored by the European powers. The president considers that the United States has been in instrument in the hands of Providence to relieve the people of the Philippines from oppression, and he regards that as an important result of the war. The efforts and the advantage would be wasted if the islands again returned to the domination of Spain. The laws of humanity and the instincts of a higher civilization will not allow the United States to let those islands go back under a despotism. When we went into this war we never intended to take the Philippines, but that became necessary as a diversion for Spain. Now that the Philippines have fallen into our control, the president proposes to feel his way very carefully and get an idea of what is best for their people before he considers any proposition for a permanent government. He says that the United States is "no-slave-catcher." Having released the Philippines and given them freedom he does not propose to give them back to their old masters. As yet the president has not reached any policy or decided upon anything further. He does not know how many inhabitants they have or what kind of people they are, or whether they can read or write, or anything about them. The present intention is to establish a military government under Gen. Nielson, as long as it may be necessary, until a local government is organized or some disposition is decided upon.

The only nation that has officially expressed any concern in the disposition of the Philippines thus far is Japan. The Japanese minister went up to the State department one day and wanted to know what we were going to do with them. He was told that we had not gotten them yet and that we could do nothing with them until we did get them. He said that his government felt a great interest in their disposition; that it was a vital question with Japan and they would like to be consulted if the islands were to be sold and put in a bid. Next to China, Japan was more deeply interested than any other nation. He was informed that the President had not decided upon any policy, and would not be able to do for some time, when he would be notified and the full rights of Japan considered.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

Bob Wall and Walter Alexander Jailed For Stealing.

Bob Wall and Walter Alexander are in jail on a charge of larceny. Wall was run in yesterday morning just before daylight, having been caught in the act of stealing corn from E. H. Anderson's crib on South Virginia street, and his statement implicated Alexander, who was later arrested on a warrant. Both were held over under $500 bonds by Judge Leavell.

Mr. Anderson has been missing his corn for some time and engaged Officer Lander and Mr. Wm. Rossington to watch. Wall showed up with a sack and after opening the door came to where the guards were, and began to fill his sack with corn. Officer Lander got between Wall and the door and Rossington struck a match. Wall gave a frightened yell and broke for the door, and had to be secured by main strength. He had in his possession another sack containing 20 headless spring chickens.

Both men are pretty sure of a journey at Eldville.

Gen. Lee Starts South.

Washington, May 20.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's departure from Washington has generally been credited as the signal to begin the invasion of Cuba. Last week a Cabinet officer was quoted as saying: "Whenever Lee starts South, the invasion of Cuba is at hand."

Well, Lee with his staff started for Tampa to-day, yet the officials of the administration deny that the troops will begin movement at once.

Forty-Two Lives Lost.

Chicago, May 20.—Forty-two persons are known to have lost their lives and twenty-eight others are reported dead as a result of tornadoes which devastated portions of Eastern Iowa, Western Illinois and Northern Wisconsin Thursday night. Iowa heads the list with nineteen fatalities.

Illinois' First Soldier.

Capt. Edward Harriman Doss Couch, of Peoria, Ill., was the first man of the first company of the first regiment sworn into the Federal service from Illinois for the war with Spain. The organization which he presented to the Government in the name of the State is one of the very best. The men stood the surgical examination without difficulty, after the Captain sent home 13 whom he knew to be of doubtful strength. His quota was full and he had nineteen whom he offered to loan to a smaller company. The officers are all big men. Captain Couch is a giant, with the bearing of a born soldier and a look which indicates he could cut a Spaniard's head off with the greatest cheerfulness. He became connected with the State Militia in 1862, when he joined the Peoria Light Guards. He has been successfully second and first lieutenant and captain of Company L, holding the latter commission nine years. He saw service during the Chicago railroad strike and coal miners' strikes.

By whose orders was it that Sampson and Schley both turned up at Key West, just when they were needed at Santiago?

HERE'S ROMANCE.

Miss Cosio To Wed One of Her Rescuers.

Washington, May 20.—Evangeline Cosio y Cisneros, the young Cuban girl, is soon to wed Mr. Carlos Carbonel, the former Cuban banker, who was yesterday nominated by President McKinley to be Lieutenant on the staff of Maj.-Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

When Karl Decker went to Havana with the express purpose of liberating Miss Cisneros he found a trusted lieutenant in the person of Mr. Carbonel, although, like Mr. Decker, he was at the time unacquainted with the fair young Cuban. When the night of the rescue from the Havana prison came Mr. Carbonel was at Decker's side during the entire affair. To Carbonel was entrusted the duty and privilege of accompanying the young girl to New York. Companionship between the two natives of a common clime soon ripened into love and the usual details of courtship followed, with the result that the result that the wedding will shortly take place, probably before Lieut. Carbonel shall be ordered into the field, although no definite time has been decided on by Miss Cisneros, her guardian, Mrs. Logan, or the groom-to-be.

Suicide of a Bridegroom.

Nashville, Tenn., May 20.—J. A. Voss, a son of Capt. J. R. Voss, committed suicide at his father's residence, near Hurricane, yesterday morning. He was in bed at the time, and fired three shots, perforating his lungs and heart. Despondency caused by illness led to the tragedy. He was married only ten days ago to an estimable young woman.

Now that Cervera has had the nerve to run the so-called blockade, let's bottle him up.

he was pleased to get out without further trouble. I regret the necessity of having to make the circumstances public, but I feel that such misrepresentation of the motives governing this department would greatly injure its efficiency at this time.

"Capt. Gaines and Lieut. Casey, who were on the ground, were authorized to raise a company to take the place of Peland's company, and were directed to enlist in the new company such members of Peland's company as desired to remain, and if a sufficient number of them remained to justify they would be given a Lieutenant's place in this new company. This step was taken in order that the regiment might be mustered in as soon as possible."

Say's Thirty Will Stay.

Mr. J. H. Kugler, proprietor of the Racket store, has a couple of his most valued employes in camp at Lexington. Mr. Kugler believes a man who is faithful and conscientious in the discharge of his duty in one capacity will be equally so in another. He believes that the cause is just, that the war is right and he did not discourage his clerks when they felt that their duty called them to the front. On the contrary he told them to go and he wants them to stay to the end. Yesterday he telegraphed to Mr. Hiram Thomas, one of his most valued employes, telling him to remain with the company as long as there was an organization.

He received this reply:
J. H. KUGLER.—I considerably mutilated but thirty still in the ring.
